Santa Rosa Symphony Summer Music Academy

Class Descriptions

Instrumental Classes

Violin and Viola Workshop, ages 5-7 and 8-13

We take students with no prior music experience and continuing students who have prior violin experience. Classes introduce students to playing the violin in a group setting. Students will be placed in either beginning or continuing violin classes based upon a teacher evaluation on the first day of class. A music appreciation class (an introduction to beginning music concepts) is included at no additional charge.

Low Strings Workshop for Cello and Bass, ages 8-15

No prior music experience is necessary. This class is also appropriate for the beginning to intermediate students who have played cello or bass for 0-3 years. Classes introduce students to playing the cello and bass in a group setting. A course in beginning music theory is included at no additional charge.

Intensive Bass Workshop, ages 15-adult

For intermediate to advanced bass students who want an intensive "how to play better" workshop. Sessions will explore chamber music for basses, mock auditions, and in-depth solo work.

Brass Workshop, ages 8 and up

No prior music experience is necessary. This class is also appropriate for the beginning to intermediate students who have played trumpet or trombone for 0-3 years. Classes introduce students to playing trumpet or trombone in a group setting. More experienced players develop new skills and hone the basics.

String Ensembles

Initial placement is determined by teacher recommendation. The recommendation form is included in this packet. At the instructor's discretion, a placement audition may be required.

Beginning String Orchestra, ages 7 and up

No prior ensemble experience required. Students must have played their instrument for at least one year. Students will learn the basics of playing in an ensemble. A course in beginning music theory is included at no additional charge.

Intermediate String Orchestra, ages 9 and up

For intermediate students with at least one year ensemble experience.

Chamber Strings, ages 11 and up

For advanced students with at least two years ensemble experience.

Wind Ensembles

Initial placement is determined by teacher recommendation. The recommendation form is included in this packet. At the instructor's discretion, a placement audition may be required. There is a special need for percussion players. Percussion instruments are provided by Santa Rosa Symphony.

Premier Wind Ensemble, ages 8 and up

No prior ensemble experience required. Student must have played their instrument at least one year. Students will learn the basics of playing in an ensemble. A course in beginning music theory is included at no additional charge.

Chamber Winds, ages 12 and up

For advanced students with at least two years ensemble experience. This class will focus on the elements of chamber playing, and students will perform in ensembles of various sizes.

Flute Choir, ages 10 and up

For intermediate to advanced players. Classes will focus on technique and developing sensitivity while in a group setting. Large and small ensembles will work on classical music.

Jazz Ensemble, ages 12 and up

For intermediate to advanced students, this class is an exploration of different jazz styles, with a focus on improvisation technique and ensemble playing. There is a special need for musicians who play drum set, electric bass and piano. Drum set and keyboard are provided by Santa Rosa Symphony.

Composition

For advanced students, this course is an opportunity for musicians to experience a practical approach to the fundamentals of orchestration, notation and musical analysis. Students interact in an open atmosphere of exploration to create new musical works. Acceptance is based on the submission of one original composition by the student. Please call us for more information.

Academy Orchestra

For advanced students with three years ensemble experience, this full symphony orchestra plays music from standard orchestral repertoire. Openings for strings, woodwinds, brass and percussion. The audition required for Academy Orchestra consists of: a prepared unaccompanied solo, demonstration of scales and sight reading. Please call us for an appointment.
