SR Symphony Youth Orchestra presents Fall Concert November 15

(SANTA ROSA, CA)—Fresh on the heels of their European tour and an outdoor performance for ArtsSonoma 09, the Santa Rosa Symphony Youth Orchestra performs its Fall Concert on Sunday, November 15. Beginning at 3 p.m. at the Jackson Theater, Sonoma Country Day School, conductor Richard Loheyde will lead the young musicians in a no-slouch program of selections from Beethoven (First Symphony), Smetana (The Moldau), Berlioz (Symphonie Fantastique) and Stravinsky (The Rite of Spring).

The Santa Rosa Symphony Discovery Orchestra, which can be considered the YO's "feeder orchestra," will perform at this concert as special guests. The Discovery Orchestra is conducted by William R. "Bob" Williams, long-time violinist with the Symphony.

Tickets are $12 general, $10 students and seniors. Call 54-MUSIC (707-546-8742) or purchase online www.santarosasympphony.com.

Currently in its 51st season, the Santa Rosa Symphony Youth Orchestra has 65 members ranging in age from 12 to 19. Several players from last season auditioned for, and have been accepted by, the San Francisco Symphony Youth orchestra, a testament to the excellence of these young musicians.
