For Immediate Release: August 25, 2010

Santa Rosa Symphony Single Tickets for 10-11 Season On Sale September 20

SANTA ROSA, CA – Individual tickets for Santa Rosa Symphony concerts and events during the 2010-2011 season go on sale Monday, September 20. Tickets may be purchased online at www.santarosasympphony.com, by phone at 54-MUSIC (707-546-8742) or in person Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. at the Symphony Patron Services Office, 50 Santa Rosa Avenue (north entrance, first floor, off elevator lobby). Depending on seat location, prices range from $28-$55 (with senior discounts available).

On October 9, 10 and 11, Music Director Bruno Ferrandis steps onto the podium at the Wells Fargo Center for the Arts to kick off the Symphony's 83rd season with a program of Italian composers—Verdi, Paganini, Berio and Respighi. Guest soloist Dmitri Berlinsky, the youngest winner ever of the Paganini International Music Competition, demonstrates extraordinary technique and lyricism in performing Paganini's First Violin Concerto.

Performance times are: Saturday and Monday evening at 8 p.m. and Sunday afternoon at 3 p.m. The dress rehearsal performance on Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. is open to families and discount priced at $10 for adults and $6 for youth. "Conversations with the Conductor," a pre-concert talk by Maestro Ferrandis and a guest artist or orchestra musician, take place one hour prior to the three regular performances.

Not Too Late to Buy Season Tickets!

Season subscriptions are still on sale providing savings of up to 16% over buying tickets for individual concerts. The benefits of subscribing are many, including: the best seats in the house, ability to purchase additional tickets at a discount, free ticket exchange privileges, and a Symphony Restaurant Discount Card. The SRS Patron Services staff can provide complete information about the variety of subscriber ticket packages available to suit your lifestyle.
